

Honored Client,

Welcome to McDivitt Law Firm, and thank you for putting your trust in us in this difficult time. Whatever the circumstances, no one chooses to be injured. You may feel like your accident has knocked your life off course, but you now have a team of experienced attorneys and legal professionals working to help you get it back on track. McDivitt is here for you, and we've got your back.

For over 40 years, McDivitt has provided Colorado with exceptional client service and aggressive, quality representation. We're committed to advocating for your rights, and we'll fight to make sure those responsible for your injuries - and the insurance companies - are held accountable.

When you hired us, you chose the best legal representation available. Your priority now should be your recovery, not getting bogged down in legal details. But we know you have questions, so we've put together a brief handbook to reference as we work together over the next few months.

Remember: you're not alone anymore. Your case manager is your point person on our team, and they'll be able to answer any questions you have, no matter how big or small. We're here for you, and you can reach us by phone, text, or client portal - whatever works for you.

You've made the right choice. Now you focus on your recovery, and we'll get to work.

Sincerely,
